CATCH ME IF YOU CAN! - ALBARIÑO

IGP PAYS D'OC

PRODUCER: Claude Vialade

TYPE: Organic white wine

GRAPES: 100% Albariño

SOIL TYPES: The vines thrive on the northern slopes of the Fontfroide Massif, benefiting from a temperate climate where natural freshness balances Mediterranean generosity. Planted on the Quaternary terraces of the Orbieu River, they grow on a mosaic of claylimestone and granitic soils. This geological diversity brings tension, pronounced minerality and great aromatic finesse to the wine.

VINEYARD MANAGEMENT: The vineyard has been farmed organically for over 20 years, with a strong commitment to respecting the environment and living soils. Only copper and sulfur are used to protect the vines. Green manures and limited soil cultivation help preserve microbial life, maintain freshness and soil moisture, and allow the full expression of the terroir.

WINEMAKING: Grapes are hand-harvested in small crates to preserve their integrity and aromatic potential. Whole-bunch pressing at cold, low temperatures ensures a gentle and precise extraction. Free-run and press juices are separated and vinified independently in stainless steel tanks, resulting in a wine of great purity and remarkable precision.

TASTING NOTES: The wine displays a bright pale yellow color with delicate green highlights. The first nose reveals fresh aromas of citrus fruits and stone fruits, enhanced by subtle floral notes. On the palate, the attack is lively and refreshing, with a full and wellbalanced mouthfeel supported by beautiful tension. The finish is long and persistent, marked by an elegant saline touch.

FOOD PAIRINGS: A fresh and refined wine, perfect as an aperitif or at the table. It pairs beautifully with seafood, grilled or ceviche-style fish, as well as grilled octopus, enhancing purity of flavors and delicate textures.
